UCC Literary Translator in Residence 2024-2025

Working as a Literary Translator in France: Challenges and Opportunities

In this seminar, Laetitia Devaux will share her experience of working as a literary translator from English into French for many years. She will discuss the main challenges she has encountered and the opportunities that have arisen from her professional commitment to literary translation in the French context. Examples from her own work will be provided to illustrate her arguments.

Thursday 27th February 2025

O'Rahilly Building, ORB 2.12
